Unusual Offer To Our Readers.

For a limited time, and subject to withdrawal after 30 days, the well-known publishing house of the J. B.
Lippincott Company, Philadelphia, founded in 1792, offers to the readers of this paper a 12 months' subscription to "Lippincott's Magazine" and a year's subscription to the Kentuckian, both for $3.00. This is the price of a twelve months' subscription to "Lippincott's" alone. Additional to obtaining every issue of this paper for a year, our readers will receive in "Lippincott's," 12 great complete novels by popular authors, 105 short stories, crisp, entertaining, original 45 timely articles from the pens of masters, and each month some excellent poems with the right sentiment, and "Walnuts and Wine," the most popular humor section in America. To obtain this extraordinary offer prompt action is necessary.

REQUEST FOR LOAN COMING

Because Doolan Listened So Attentively Bridges Knew That a Touch Was Coming.

Doolan sauntered slowly through the crowded restaurant.
"Why, Bridges," he said, clapping his hand on a man's back, "you're just the fellow I want to see! I want to ask your opinion. Now—Ah, excuse me!" he stammered. "I did not notice that your wife was with you." Making excuses to the lady, the two stood aside for a moment talking earnestly. Suddenly, quite abruptly, Bridges returned to the table.
"How rude you are, dear!" said his wife reprovingly. "Right in the midst of the advice you were giving you broke off and walked away."
"Quite so."
"But he was listening very deferentially to what you were saying."
"That's why I cut it, dear. I never had a man listen to me in that way but what he touched me for a fever before leaving."—Philadelphia Record.

His Little Scheme.

"Oh, yes, we always have good meals at our home."
"Then you have a good cook?"
"No, she's a plain cook and hardly passable. My wife is the real cook."
"Your wife?"
"Sure. All I have to do is praise the cook's cooking, and then my wife goes out and does the cooking herself."

Penology.

"What's the matter with this show?" asked the man who was making for the exit.
"Well," confessed the manager, "this is a number two company."
"What do you mean by a 'number two company'?"
"One composed of people who have been sentenced to leave New York and go on the road for being bad actors."

Queer Boston Girl.

"There seems to be a difference of opinion as to whether Shakespeare really wrote those plays," ventured the Chicago man, who thought it was up to him to steer the conversation into literary channels.
"I should worry," responded the Boston Girl.
And he promptly switched off into baseball.

WHEN THE FUN BEGINS.

First Chaperon—I dearly love to bring young people together and make engagements.
Second Chaperon—Same here.
First Chaperon—It's so exciting when it comes to butting in and breaking them later.

Old Axiom Goes Lame.

"Yes," admitted the man with the careworn look, "I married in haste."
"And repented at leisure, I suppose," remarked the other party to the dialogue.
"Not so you could notice it," replied the other with an open-faced sigh. "I haven't had any leisure time since I butted into the matrimonial game."

Sympathetic.

"Do you succeed in loving your enemies?"
"Not exactly," answered Senator Sorghum. "But I have a good deal of sympathy for them."
"I didn't know they needed sympathy."
"They don't. But they're going to before I get through with them."

Philosophy on the Half Shell.

"What are you working at now?"
"Shuckin' oysters," replied Mr. Erasmus Pickley.
"How do you like the work?"
"It's purty hard work. 'Bout de only satisfaction I gits out of it is thinkin' how lucky I is to be de shuck-er instid o' de oyster."

A Comparison.

"What would you think," queried the timid youth, "if I were to steal just one little kiss?"
And the fair maid in the parlor scene came back at him thus:
"What would you think of a burglar who had a chance to swipe a hundred dollars and only took a dime?"

One Great Family.

Smith—I say, Isaacs, these Russian blokes 'ave the funniest names, ain't they?—Michalovitch, Androvitch, Jackovitch, Stephanovitch.
Isaacs—That's so. You can't tell rich is vitch.—Sidney Bulletin.

The Duke Struck It.

"The duke was about bankrupt when he married Miss Millyuns."
"Then you don't think it was a love match?"
"No: it was a safety match from the duke's point of view."

Mrs. John Drew Better.

McLeansboro, Ill.—"About five years ago," says Mrs. John L. Drew, of this place, "I was affected with pains and irregularity every month.
I suffered continually, was weak and despondent, and unable to do my housework. I took Cardui, and in one month, I felt like a new woman and worked hard all summer. I am now in perfect health, and recommend Cardui to all suffering women." Every day, during the past 50 years, Cardui has been steadily forging ahead as a result of its proven value in female troubles. It relieves headache, backache, womanly misery and puts fresh strength into weary bodies. Try it.

VALUABLE ARM OF SERVICE

Marines Can Point to Record of Great Distinction in the History of the Country.

Instead of "telling it to the marines," according to the popular saying, the government is now telling it to the people who know all about the army and the navy, but comparatively little about the marines. Yet marines served under John Paul Jones, they raised the flag over Tripoli, helped capture the city of Mexico, entered and fortified Chapultepec, were foremost in our troubles in the far east and at Guantanamo. To tell the people all this and also what the marine is, the government has now an advertising bureau, which sends information directly and which in six months has been so successful that the old way of paid advertising has been discarded. The corps numbers 340 officers and 10,000 men, and there is not a vacancy. Attention of boys, city and country, is brought directly to the corps by photographs from life at recruiting stations, and literature that is "live" and readable. On enlistment, recruits are first drilled as infantry soldiers, then field artillerymen, and members of machine gun companies.
For landing service and defenders of the naval advance they are taught the use of portable searchlights, wireless telegraph. They find ranges, place submarine telegraph lines, handle torpedoes, build and destroy bridges, mount ships' guns and so on. All of which it is apparent is a range of duties far wider than that of any other arm of the service. In short, the marine corps is for the first time perhaps becoming really known, and the knowledge shows what a high place it occupies.

White Man With Black Liver.

The Liver is a blood purifier. It was, thought at one time it was the seat of the passions. The trouble with most people is that their Liver comes black because of impurities in the blood due to bad physical states, causing Biliouness, Headache Dizziness and Constipation. Dr.
King's New Life Pills will clean up the Liver, and give you new life.

His Proposal.

"Can you wash clothes?" asked the timid young lover.
"What's that?" asked the surprised maiden.

"Can you wash dishes?"
"Say, I thought this was a proposal of marriage? What do you run, anyway—a laundry or a restaurant?"

His Family Tree.

Andy—And you say that is a picture of your family tree?
Sandy—It is.

"But the tree has no foliage on it?"
"No, you see, I'm Scotch descent and my ancestors wore kilts and wen' through the winter with bare limbs."

Inevitable Displeasure.

"There is no use of trying to please everybody," said the ready-made philosopher.

"But you don't make an effort of any kind."
"There you are! You blame me for being absolutely harmless!"

Installment Plan.

Bill—Thought you said you were going to buy a cow?
Jill—Well, I'm doing it.

"Where is it?"
"Over at my neighbor's. I'm buying it on the installment plan. I've bought a lot of the milk already."

Constant as the Polar Star.

Mrs. Muldooly—Th' trouble wid my husband is that he never sticks to any wan thing more'n a week.

Mr. McGroggin—Yez do him injustice, Mrs. Muldooly. Oi never saw a firmer man than your husband whin it comes to a strike.

In Harmony.

"You'll find the place very easy, Mary. We have an electric washer and an electric mangle and an electric coffee urn and a toaster and a cleaner."
"It's no place for me ma'am. I'm too slow an' old-fashioned. What you need is a live wire."

In London.

American (answering phone)— Hello!
Englishman (other end of line)—Ah you theah?

American—Yes, old chap; but how the deuce did you guess it?—Minnesota Minnehaha.

Embittered.

"Your supporters continue to give you three cheers when you appear in public, even though you were not successful."

"Those are not my supporters.
Those are the people who are glad I was defeated."

The Real Thing.

An aim in life is the only fortune worth the finding, says Stevenson; and it is not to be found in foreign lands, but in the heart itself.
